

I OPPOSE the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) challenge of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law that is currently before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). I feel my privacy rights should come first. When I signed up for the Indiana "do not call list" my message to these companies was very clear. I would not let them in my front door and I don't want them hassling me on the phone.